Trust to Nature.

A great many Americans, both men and women, are thin, pale and puny, with poor circulation, because they have ill-treated their stomachs by hasty eating or too much eating, by consuming alcoholic beverages, or by too close confinement to home, office or factory, and in consequence the stomach must be treated in a natural way before they can rectify their earlier mistakes. The muscles in many such people, in fact in every weary, thin and thin-blooded person, do their work with great difficulty. As a result fatigue comes early, is extreme and lasts long. The demand for nutritive aid is ahead of the supply. To insure perfect health every tissue, bone, nerve and muscle should take from the blood certain materials and return to it certain others. It is necessary to prepare the stomach for the work of taking up from the food what is necessary to make good, rich, red blood. We must go to Nature for the remedy. There were certain roots known to the Indians of this country before the advent of the whites which later came to the knowledge of the settlers and which are now growing rapidly in professional favor for the cure of obstinate stomach and liver troubles. These are found to be safe and yet certain in their cleansing and invigorating effect upon the stomach, liver and blood. These are: Golden Seal root, Queen's root, Stone root, Bloodroot, Mandrake root. Then there is Black Cherrybark. The medicinal principles residing in these native roots when extracted with glycerine as a solvent make the most reliable and efficient stomach tonic and liver invigorator, when combined in just the right proportions, as in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Where there is bankrupt vitality—such as nervous exhaustion, bad nutrition—and thin blood, the body acquires vigor and the nerves, blood and all the tissues feel the favorable effect of this sovereign remedy.

Although some physicians have been aware of the high medicinal value of the above mentioned plants, yet few have used pure glycerine as a solvent and usually the doctors' prescriptions called for the ingredients in varying amounts, with alcohol.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" is a scientific preparation compounded of the glyceric extracts of the above mentioned vegetable ingredients and contains no alcohol or harmful habit-forming drugs.

HAIR BACK.

Was Perfectly Bald When He Started to Use Newbro's Herpicide.

Frederick Mandell, Maryland block, Butte, Montana, bought a bottle of Newbro's Herpicide, April 6, '05, and began to use it for entire baldness. The hair follicles in his scalp were not dead and in 20 days he had hair all over his head. On July 2 he writes, "and today my hair is as thick and luxuriant as any one could wish." Newbro's Herpicide works on an old principle and with a new discovery—destroy the cause and you remove the effect. Herpicide destroys the germ that causes dandruff, falling hair, and finally baldness, so that with the cause gone the effect cannot remain. Stops falling hair at once and a new growth starts. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Reception to the Longworths.

Seldom has the entertainment of the representative of any foreign government so attracted the attention of the social diplomatic and political world than did the dinner and reception given by Ambassador and Mrs. Reid at Dorchester House, London, yesterday evening, for Representative and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, at which King Edward, by his presence and attention to President Roosevelt's daughter, marked his esteem for the United States and its chief executive.

In many respects the gathering yesterday evening was distinctive, for besides King Edward, who was attended by Lord Granard, lord-in-waiting, and Captain Holford, equerry, and Mr. and Mrs. Longworth, the company included cabinet ministers, political leaders of both parties, diplomats and persons of prominence in English society.

Particular care had been taken not to mar by undue decorations the beauties of the interior of Dorchester House, but flowers of every variety, cut and potted, were used in profusion in banking the bases of the massive columns and railings of the grand staircase. Red and pink roses and scarlet ramblers, now so much in vogue in interior decoration, predominated, but were placed tastefully amid bowers of ferns and clusters of marguerites, carnations and other favorites of English horticulturists.

Over the main entrance, which overlooks the Stanhope Gate entrance of Hyde Park from Park lane, a marble eagle looked down upon the arriving guests, who on entering passed between banks of flowers to the head of the stairway, where they were received by Mr. and Mrs. Reid, and presented in turn to King Edward and Mr. and Mrs. Longworth.

Dinner was served in the main dining hall, which contains many valuable paintings, for which Dorchester House is famous, and which no scheme of embellishment could improve. The table, however, stood out even amidst this grandeur, with its simple but artistic arrangement of Alexandra and other varieties of orchids.

Dinner over, King Edward received the members of the embassy staff who did not attend the dinner.

For the musical entertainment some hundred guests were invited. The concert was almost as notable as the dinner.

What has passed might have taxed the most versatile host; but supper was to follow. This was served at separate tables under a pavilion erected over the north garden, which was overlooked from a picturesque portico, a very pretty effect being produced. King Edward presided over one of the tables, at which there were 15 guests.

To reach the pavilion the guests passed through a long marble hallway lined with flowers to a portico around the columns of which clung growing crimson ramblers starting from amidst great beds of flowers, giving the appearance of an immense conservatory.

Flowers also were largely used within the pavilion, being in striking contrast with the green and white drapery of which the ceiling was formed. Here, as throughout the great hall and reception-rooms of the mansion, opportunity was given the guests of mingling freely and engaging in informal conversation.

Some very striking costumes were worn by the ladies.

Damage by Storms.

A tornado swept over Tifton, Ga., late yesterday afternoon, damaging more than fifty houses. The Presbyterian church was wrecked. The damage so far reported amounts to $30,000.

A tornado at Havre, Mont., yesterday afternoon caused considerable damage and injured three persons. The wind was accompanied by heavy rain and hail, the hailstones being of enormous size. Almost every window in town was broken. Eight coaches were unroofed and a string of cars was blown off a siding. It was reported that severe damage was done in the surrounding country.

A tornado in Chouteau county, Mont., has caused damage estimated at $100,000. It is reported that Fort Assiniboine is damaged.

A cyclone which started near Waycross, Ga., yesterday afternoon, caused considerable damage to property and several persons are reported injured.

A Miraculous Cure.

The following statement, by H. M. Adams and wife, Henrietta, Pa., will interest parents and others. "A miraculous cure has taken place in our home. Our child had eczema 5 years and was pronounced incurable, when we read about Electric Bitters, and concluded to try it. Before the second bottle was all taken we noticed a change for the better, and after taking 7 bottles he was completely cured." It's the up-to-date blood medicine and body building tonic. Guaranteed. 50c and $1.00 at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store.

The many imitations of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve that are now before the public prove it is the best. Ask for DeWitt's. Good for burns, scalds, chafed skin, eczema, tetter, cuts, bruises, boils and piles. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

WEDNESDAY EVENING, JUNE 13, 1906.

JUDGE E. W. BAGBY, of Murray, Ky., referee in bankruptcy for the Western district of Kentucky, has rendered an important decision in the bankruptcy case of Will Haris & Co., disallowing the claim of $500 filed by the Murray Christian Church against the estate of L. C. Linn at the time funds were raised for the building of the Christian Church. Linn subscribed $500, and the church people sought to collect this upon the filing of his petition in bankruptcy. The decision of the referee that he is not legally bound to pay has aroused comment in church circles, as it practically holds that subscriptions for religious bodies and charitable purposes are void in law. The churches, or those conducting their secular affairs, often render themselves cheap in the eyes of the world by refusing to obey the divine injunction, "beware of covetousness," as well as the warning to avoid litigation which applies to church members collectively and individually, and the above is a glaring instance of the departure from the straight and narrow way which is but little sought by this generation.

THE City Council last night took another step toward the sale of the electric franchise in this city. Should a favorable bid be received and accepted it is believed that electricity for power and heat, in addition to that for lighting purposes, will soon be introduced here and that Alexandria's material interests will be greatly advanced thereby. The difficulty heretofore has been that a small minority of members of Council have held out for municipal ownership. It will be remembered that at the convention of the National Electric Light Association, at Atlantic City last week, President Blood, in his address, said that public owership of utilities is proving a failure both in England and in America. This is generally accepted by business men as being true, and it is believed that if the city's rights are properly safeguarded the sale of the electric franchise will be a decided advantage to Alexandria.

IT took a Kansas City jury yesterday just one hour to find a verdict of guilty against the "Big Four" of Packingtown on a charge of receiving unlawful rebates from the published rates of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad. The published rate involved in the case was 35 cents; the shipments for the "Big Four" were made at a 23 cent rate. The claim was made by the packing firms that the 23-cent rate was given them under a contract entered into with the railroad at a time when the published rate was also 23 cents; they claimed that the continuance of the contractual rate even after the official rate had been raised to 35 cents was not in fraud of the law. The jury, however, found that the making of a long time contract between a railroad and a large shipper at an existing low rate and the subsequent increase of the published charge for all other shippers was a device to circumvent the statute.

VIRTUAL agreement, it is understood, was reached last night that a vote upon whether Senator Smoot shall be unseated shall not be taken at this session of Congress. Canvass of the Senate by leaders upon both sides has shown that if the attempt is made to reach a vote now, nearly every Senator in the body will make a speech explaining his position with respect to the Mormon question. It has, therefore, been decided that if Congress is to adjourn this month or early in July, the Smoot case must go over. A motion will be made in the Senate that a date be fixed for considering the problem at the next session, and also a date for voting upon it. If this is agreed to it will insure its final disposition and prevent further wrangling now. It is well for Mr. Smoot that he is a republican, or he would have been ousted long ago.

THE DEMOCRATS of the Fourth ward, through sheer neglect, yesterday allowed one of the party nominees for Council to be defeated. This was the only ward in which there was any opposition whatever to the regular nominees and with the slightest effort on the part of the democrats of that ward Mr. Bryan would have been returned to Council, where he has served for some years most efficiently and satisfactorily as chairman of the finance committee. A large majority of the voters of the ward, however, neglected to go to the polls and Mr. Bryan was defeated. This but shows the importance of democrats doing their duty.

Revolt in Trepani.

Rome, June 13.—The Mediterranean squadron has been ordered to Trepani, where it is reported the people are in open revolt against the government. The trouble arose over the prosecution of a local deputy to whose aid the people rallied. It is reported that there has been severe fighting between the people and troops sent to the spot. Many casualties are reported.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, June 12.

Secretary Shaw's trip to Iowa is likely to be productive of some trouble to the administration. Unless the denial sent after Mr. Shaw's flying feet by the President's orders does not overtake the statement issued on the authority of the Secretary, the Cummins crowd in Iowa will be set at swords' points with the administration, and there will be added another complication to an already complicated situation. When Secretary Shaw left Washington for Iowa, and broke a "date" he had previously made to speak at Syracuse, it was announced that the President thought it best for him to make the western trip. In other words, it was made to appear that the Secretary was proceeding to Iowa as the mouthpiece of the President and the inference was irresistible that the President, therefore, was "agan" the Cummins crowd. Soon after Mr. Shaw left town announcement was made at the White House that the Secretary had gone to Iowa of his own volition and that the President had not and did not support Shaw as against Cummins. The President, as was his custom, the authorized statement continued, is maintaining a hands-off policy in Iowa and does not intend under any circumstances to be dragged into the bitter rough and tumble scrap that is now going on in that State. The move of Secretary Shaw in pulling the President into the mix-up is not relished at the White House and it is quite likely that the Secretary will be made cognizant of the fact when he returns.

The oracle of the Senate has spoken, and Congress is due to adjourn on Friday, the 22d day of June. If it does not it will prove that the oracle has lost his power over the graver branch of Congress and great will be the surprise of those who swear by the Hon. Nelson Aldrich. Col "Pete" Hepburn, chairman of the House committee on interstate and foreign commerce had a talk with the President this morning about Panama canal matters. When he came out he was not at all loquacious about his conference with the President, but he said, in reply to the question, When will Congress adjourn: "A gentlemen told me last night that the oracle of the Senate had just told him that Congress will adjourn on the 22d. I asked him 'which oracle?' and he replied, 'The oracle from Rhode Island,' I hardly thought, before I heard this, that we would be able to get through quite so soon, but now that I am more fully informed, I do not see any reason why we should not do it."

The House committee on naval affairs, has made favorable report on the bill to provide for raising Commodore Perry's flagship Niagara, which is now lying half buried in the sand and water in Misery Bay, off the shores of the city of Erie.

The House committee on agriculture, considering the meat inspection legislation, recessed at 2:15 this afternoon with but one proposition unsettled—that being the question who shall pay the inspection fees. An important addition to the bill is in the shape of a penalty for bribery of inspectors which is made to provide a fine of not less than $5,000 and not more than $10,000, and imprisonment of not less than one nor more than three years.

Secretary of the Agricultural Department Wilson has informed the Civil Service Commission that there will be probably 150 appointments made by the department of veterinary inspectors to comply with the contemplated requirements of the meat inspection law now under consideration by Congress at salaries of $1,200 per annum each. The commission has accordingly announced that there will be an examination of applicants for such positions on June 25th. All necessary information will be supplied by the Civil Service Commission to persons interested.

The Castellane Divorce Case.

Paris, June 13.—Friends of Count Boni Castellane and the Countess Castellane who were seen today by a representative of the Publishers Press interpret the words of George Gould who said just before sailing from America yesterday that the Castellane case was adjusting itself, as meaning only that the negotiations between the husband and wife are tending to a settlement without a court scandal, but not that the divorce suit is off.

$2,000,000 Fire in Baltimore.

Baltimore. June 13 —The Savannah steamship wharf of the Merchants and Miners' Transportation Company was totally destroyed by fire which started about 1:30 o'clock this morning. The fire started on a scow lying to the east of the wharf, alongside of which was a dredging machine. The fire made quick headway, and before many minutes had elapsed the entire wharf, which is 690 feet long, was a solid mass of flames. The steamer Essex, which arrived in port several days ago, and which was half unloaded, was lying alongside of the south end of the wharf. She caught fire and was towed out into the harbor burning fiercely, and at six o'clock nothing remained of her but a battered hull. Eight scows and barges that were also lying alongside of the wharf were ignited at once and were soon completely destroyed. A number of them were towed out into midstream so as to prevent them from setting fire to adjoining property. The barges and scows were loaded with cotton and rosin.

The residents of houses on the north side of Block street, facing the wharf, were panic stricken and for a while it looked as though their homes were doomed. Two old women, who were ill, Mrs. O'Neill and Mrs. Wells, residing at 1130 Block street, locked themselves in and policemen had to break into the house and carry them out. They were taken to the city hospital.

The Essex was a steamer of 2,000 tons and was valued at $300,000. How much cargo was on her is not known, but the damage will approximate nearly half a million. The total loss will probably amount to nearly $2,000,000 as the piers were well stocked with goods of all kinds and descriptions. For a time it seemed that Baltimore was to have another far-sweeping conflagration. Three of the crew of the steamer Essex met death in the vessel.

The bodies of the three dead men were recovered with great difficulty by the men of the police boat Lannan, who dug them out from a position amidships, where their bunks were situated. Two other men who have not yet been accounted for, are supposed to have lost their lives by being burned to death, or by being drowned when they leaped from the burning vessel. On board the Essex were forty men, most of whom were asleep in their bunks between decks. When they were aroused they rushed upon deck and jumped from the vessel like so many rats. The police boat Lannon came up alongside and helped to pick up the men. They all escaped, with the exception of the three known dead and possibly the two missing men.

Murder and Suicide.

Troy, N. Y., June 13.—Angered because the girl he had known and loved since childhood refused to accept the affection he tried to shower upon her, John Carter last night shot and instantly killed Mamie Stanton, and then killed himself. Both parties lived on the East Side. They had known each other for many years, and Carter was persistent in trying to gain her favor. Early last night Miss Stanton left her parents' home in company with her girl chum, Miss Nellie Kannagan, intending to witness the festivities attending the dedication of St. Anthony's Italian Church. A short way from the girl's home Carter was lurking in the darkness and when he saw them come out followed them. As the corner of Ferry and Wall streets he accosted Miss Stanton and she again refused his company. He then pulled a 32 calibre revolver from his coat pocket and fired at the girl. The bullet entered her skull behind her ear and she fell lifeless to the sidewark. But the crazed man meant to make sure of his crime, and standing over the girl's lifeless form shot four more bullets into her head. Miss Stanton's companion fainted. Carter ran about 30 feet, turned into an alley and, placing another revolver to his forehead, fired, killing himself instantly. Carter was about 26 years old and Miss Stanton was about a year his junior.

The Bryan Boom.

Richmond, Va., June 13.—A staff correspondent of the Richmond Evening Journal today interviewed Democratic National Committeeman Norman E. Mack in Buffalo, N. Y., on the democratic outlook. Mr. Mack said: "There has never been a time since the result of the 1904 election was announced that I have not believed that William Jennings Bryan would continue to be leader of the democratic party in the nation, and there has been no time in that same period but what I have believed that Mr. Bryan would be renominated for the presidency by acclamation in the next democratic national convention. I also believe that a democrat from the South, that part of the country which has always been democratic, should be presented as a candidate for the democratic nomination for the vice presidency, not because it is the South as much as because it is democratic and always consistently so." Mr. Mack predicted that Representative William Randolph Hearst would be the democratic nominee for governor of New York.

Death from Fright.

Richmond, Va., June 13.—The fashionable residence of Robert E. English, at No 1721 Grove avenue, was entered by burglars this morning about one o'clock, and Mrs. English, whose room they entered, died from the terrible fright she received, while her husband is nearly insane from grief. The burglars secured $600 worth of jewelry and silverware. After thoroughly doing the lower floor they proceeded to go up stairs, and no one was aware of their presence until the household heard Mrs. English, who is a lady past middle age, screaming frantically for help. Mr. English, who was sleeping in the room adjoining his wife, jumped out of bed and as he did so, half asleep, he realized that a light had been flashed through the open door of his room. As he rushed out of his bedroom he saw his wife come out of her room. She called for a doctor and fell to the floor. She died in a few minutes without regaining consciousness.

German Government Attacked.

Berlin, June 13.—Dr. Haasche, the leader of the national liberal party in the Reichstag, in a public speech today strongly attacked the German government's foreign policy, which, he declared, had Germany isolated. The emperor's recent visit to Vienna and the telegrams which were exchanged between him and the King Victor Emmanuel, of Italy, pledging friendship, has not affected this fact. Dr. Haasche's utterances attracted much attention because they were plainly aimed at the Kaiser.

The Vossische Zeitung commenting upon the speech, savagely attacks the foreign policy of the government. Germany, the newspaper says, paid court to Russia, but Russia was already anti-German. Germany also courted in turn England, France, Italy and America, but all these powers were equally averse to closer relations with Germany. This proves the fundamental defects of the German policy of the last eighteen years.

Mr. Bryan in St. Petersburg.

St. Petersburg. June 13.—William Jennings Bryan, who is making a tour of the world, arrived here today from Berlin. In an interview with a representative of the Publishers Press Mr. Bryan said that he intended to study the Russian situation and he hoped to meet people holding all kinds of opinions. Continuing he said: "The democratic movements in Russia and America have some analogy, but cannot be compared too closely, as ideas differ so greatly. Some measures which appear moderate in Russia would be radical in America and vice versa. I am unable to discuss the political situation in America as I have been away from there so long." Mr. Bryan will visit the Douma tomorrow. On Friday he will leave for Scandinavia.

Coronation Journey.

Christiania, Norway, June 13 —King Haakon, Queen Maud, and their son Olaf will start today on the seven day coronation journey to Trondhjem. The party will visit numerous towns en route where receptions and banquets will be held in their honor. The people are preparing a great welcome for their majesties and all the cities and towns are being decorated. The king's journey to Trondhjem is considered as an important part of the coronation ceremony as the actual church service which will be held on June 22, when the crown will be placed upon King Haakon's head. Everything has been arranged on a democratic scale. King Haakon will mix with the people like an American president on a tour.

Cruelty to Soldiers and Officers.

Berlin June 13.—The Vorwaerts today publishes sensational revelations of military abuses in German southwest Africa. Numerous cases of cruelty to soldiers and officers guilty of maltreating subordinates who were sent to Germany and placed on the retired list are printed. The systematic cruelty, the paper says, provoked several mutinies. In one serious mutiny one officer was killed and a non-commissioned officer received many wounds. The German troops are also badly fed and clothed. In conclusion, the Vorwaerts demands that the government publish the whole truth and not conceal the abuses.

Held up by Robbers.

Vienna June 13.—The cashier and employes of the mines belonging to the Austrian Laenderbank were held up in a street in Sognovic by masked robbers who seized 25,000 roubles. The robbers escaped. Previous to the robbery the thieves cut the telegraph wires and this enabled them to get a good start on their pursuers.

City Council.

The meeting of the City Council last night lasted two hours, during which time a considerable amount of business was transacted. An ordinance to advertise for bids for furnishing electricity to the city was passed, as was also an ordinance looking to the removal of the railroad track on Henry street.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

A report of the committee on streets recommending an appropriation of $1,900 for the purchase of a steam roller, received from the Common Council, April 24, was read.

Ma. Hill moved a concurrence in the action of the lower board.

Mr. Marbury said the city needed a roller for certain street work which was shortly to be recommended.

President Sweeney could not see the necessity for the purchase at present. A steam roller was a proper thing if street improvements were being prosecuted, but, so far as he could see, there was nothing at present under way in this line nor contemplated in the near future He, therefore, could not see the urgent need of an appliance, which would be stored away under some shed to be damaged by the weather. It was, however, up to the members to say whether the expenditure should be made.

Mr. Marbury said the city needed a roller and at present it could not hire one.

Mr. Hill suggested that no one could work without tools. The city had a stone crusher; it now needed a roller. It would be utilized in macadamizing certain streets.

The report was adopted, ayes 6, noes 2—Mr. Ballenger and Mr. President.

City Engineer Dunn subsequently entered the chamber and answered certain questions propounded by the members as to the need of a roller at present.

The ordinance providing for bids for furnishing electricity to the city was received from the Common Council.

After it had been read the second time Mr. Hill moved that it be placed upon its second reading.

The President (Mr. Curtin in the chair) opposed the passage of the ordinance, saying it was virtually the same as had been previously brought before Council. He had been unable to see his way clear to vote for it before and would oppose it again. He had hoped that the committee to whom it had been referred would have eliminated certain sections, especially that providing that the city dig trenches for the conduits should it become necessary in future to place wires under ground. He was, however, opposed to disposing of the franchise at all, the speaker contending that such a procedure would result in the setting up of a plant which would compete with the city's $300,000 gas plant. The President believed the city would get enough money to build a plant which would answer all purposes. He said it would be better to hold back certain contemplated street work and construct an electric plant.

Mr. Hill challenged President Sweeney to show a single instance where electricity when it had been installed in a city had interferred with the sale of gas.

The President said it had been detrimental to gas in some small places.

Mr. Hill—"Then bring in some plan yourself."

The President said he was ready to vote to pay some competent man to examine the field and report plans to Council.

Mr. W. H. Sweeney thought the section referring to trenches was of no serious moment. He had, however, endeavored to have it stricken out by the committee, but they had insisted on retaining it in the ordinance.

Mr. Burke said if the city owned an electric plant it would be compelled to bear the expense of digging trenches whenever it become necessary to put the conduits under ground, and should an accident occur the city would be responsible for damages to any one injured. The ordinance under consideration provides that the person or corporation furnishing electricity shall assume all responsibility in such contingencies. This was very important.

Mr. Hill again urged concurrence.

Mr. Simpson saw no great or material risk in the ordinance. In the first place it merely provided for advertising for bids, and did not dispose of the electric plant. In the opinion of the speaker the present plant was worthless junk, and any bid the city should receive would be beneficial. So far as the digging of trenches was concerned, the city had never buried its conduits, and there was no good reason to force others to do what the city had failed to do during the past seventeen years. Should the city become so prosperous in future as to require the burying of the conduits there would be no trouble in meeting the expense. If any company is so credulous as to buy that pile of junk (referring to the present electric plant) it would be unfair to make them dig ditches.

Mr. Burke said the city had been maintaining an electric plant for seventeen years, and apart from furnishing for a time the Southern Railway with electricity at their depot it had not realized a cent on the investment. He asked the members if the gas works had ever worked up any business, and contended if they had been in the hands of private parties the city would have been canvassed and innumerable gas stoves and other contrivances would be in operation at present, as attempts would have been made to induce all people to use gas. The city could not make money out of an electric plant. It would have to be run about twelve hours in the twenty-four at a loss.

President Sweeney—"Look at the receipts from the gas works."

Mr. Burke—"Probably if all expenditures in renewing and keeping them up year after year were considered, the net receipts would not appear so large."

A vote was finally taken and the ordinance passed, as follows: Ayes, Messrs. Hill, Burke, Marbury, Simpson, Curtin and W. H. Sweeney—6 Noes, Mr. Ballenger and Mr. President.—2.

Mr. Curtin said he at first though the city could builds suitable electric light plant; it was now apparent to him that it could not; hence he had voted for the ordinance.

Mr. Ballenger said he had voted against it from the fact that he intended to oppose the acceptance of any bid by which the franchise would be disposed of.

A resolution appropriating $100 for the purpose of ascertaining from property-owners on upper King street their wishes concerning certain improvements in that section was received from the Common Council.

Messrs. Burke and Hill favored concurring, but Messrs. Simpson and W. H. Sweeney objected, and the resolution was finally referred to the committee on streets.

Mr. Uhler, from the lower board, subsequently appeared in the chamber and explained the purpose of the resolution. The Aldermen, however, refused to reconsider their action.

The ordinance providing for the removal of the Henry street railroad track was received from the Common Council.

Messrs. Marbury and Ballenger opposed the ordinance and Messrs. Simpson and W. H. Sweeney favored it. It was finally adopted—ayes 6, Noes 2.

After concurring with the action of the lower board on several other papers which had been sent in the Aldermen adjourned.

COMMON COUNCIL.

The ordinance providing that the electric light and power franchise be advertised for lease for a term of thirty years was reported by the joint committees on finance and light.

Mr. Bryan explained that the only change, other than verbal ones, is to strike out the word "exclusive," the Corporation Attorney being of the opinion that the word should not be used in the ordinance.

Mr. Spinks moved an amendment requiring the contractor to make his own conduits if such should hereafter be required by Council.

Mr. Bryan opposed this and said conduits would only be used if Council ordered them.

Mr. Boothe said that if the amendment of Mr. Spinks's was agreed to there would be no bids, even if a bonus of $25,000 was offered for the work by Council.

The amendment was rejected and the ordinance agreed to, yeas, 13; nays, Mr. Spinks.

The street committee reported that King street, west from Fayette street, be properly curbed and paved with vitrified brick, etc, provided that property that does not pay should have no paving on its front.

Mr. Leadbeater said that in this ordinance a change is made in not requiring 75 per cent of the cost to be paid before the work is begun. The need of this work was such that it must be hastened.

Mr. Strauss said that the money for paving the square on Royal street south of King street had already been paid. It would not be safe to pursue another course on upper King street.

Mr. Bryan said that the plan would make a piece of patchwork. He insisted that it should be ascertained how many property holders would pay their pro rata cost before the work was started.

Mr. Leadbeater said it would take much time and labor to ascertain this information and that the committee had not the time to devote to the matter. He urged immediate action.

Mr. Uhler moved the appointment of an agent to interview the property owners on the subject.

Mr. Boothe—"There should be an appropriation for the pay."

Mr. Uhler—"Make it one hundred dollars if necessary."

The chair thought that the same rule regarding the paving of other streets should hold for King street.

Mr. Uhler's resolution was agreed to and the subject laid over until the next meeting.

Several papers in relation to this same subject including an ordinance for improved rails on upper King street were laid over also.

An ordinance repealing the right of way of the Washington Southern Railway over Henry street, on the ground that the street has been practically abandoned for railroad purposes and the tracks are not kept in repair, was presented.

Mr. Snowden said that the use of this street had, in consideration of the paving of six squares by the railroad company been granted "forever." He thought the property owners on Henry street were asking the City Council to rush in where they fear to tread, and that expensive litigation would result in the passage of the ordinance.

Mr. Pollard said that the City Council should protect the property owners of Henry street as well as those of every other street.

Mr. Snowden said that the railway company had acquired the use of the street by paving six squares, and that the city should act fairly in the matter.

Mr. Pollard announced that he owned property facing 166 feet on the six squares that the railroad company paved, but that he had paid the city for his pro rata share of the cost of the paving.

Mr. Snowden thought that there was some mistake about that as the railroad company had paid the entire cost of the paving.

Mr. Boothe said the only legal question was whether the non-use by the railway for 8 or 9 months repealed the grant of its use "forever;" he would vote for the ordinance with the understand that the property owners would protect the city from harm should it become necessary for the city to remove the tracks.

Mr. Pollard said he would not pay a cent for legal proceedings in the case.

The ordinance was passed by a vote of 10 to 4, Messrs. Boothe, Harrison, Uhler and Snowden voting in the negative.

An ordinance for a $2,500 sewer on streets near Columbus and Duke and Wilkes street was reported favorably and agreed to; yeas, 14; nays, 1.

An ordinance in relation to the repair of streets and alleys was passed—yeas, 13; nays, 1.

Mr. Spinks introduced a resolution looking to the appointment of a committee to hear a proposal in regard to electric light and power, which was referred—yeas, 11; nays 3.

The Aldermen having disagreed as to appointment of an agent to interview the property holders at the west end of King street concerning the paving of that street, Council receded and concurred with the aldermen.

The Alexandria Light Infantry asked that a $66 gas bill for light used for other than company proposes be remitted and the petition was referred.

An ordinance to exchange property near the gas works with the Alexandria Fertilizer Company for other property in the same neighborhood was referred.

A resolution to determine the duties of the Health officer and physicians of the poor, was agreed to.

Mr. Brill suggested that the board go into an election of a physician of the poor, vice Dr. Purvis, but the matter went over.

The board then adjourned.

Some of the parties examined had been locked up, it being supposed that they were in possession of important evidence which would tend toward clearing up this mystery. All the witnesses have been liberated and John Ryan and Stephen Davis are the only persons now being held Today Herbert Foster, who lives in Fauquier county, was summoned as a witness and he cannot reach here before tonight. Foster, it will be remembered, was one of the first persons arrested in connection with the murder. The grand jury adjourned at 11:30 this morning until tomorrow.

Carlin, and Judge Barley responded in an appropriate speech. There was too much wind for the contemplated balloon ascension.

Suit for Divorce.

Julia K. Seauerlich (who sues in her maiden name) has brought suit in the Corporation Court for a divorce from Ferdinand F. Derndigger. The parties were married in this city on the 2d of March, 1903, by the pastor of the German Lutheran Church. Derndigger, it will be remembered, was arrested in this city some time ago at the request of the German Minister in Washington who charged him with bigamy. It was alleged that he had previously been married in Germany where he had instituted a suit for divorce. Two decrees had been issued in his case, but, according to the laws of the fatherland, a third (the final) was necessary; hence Derndigger's arrest.

Tomorrow's Excursion.

Whether or not you have been in the habit of patronizing an excursion you should not by any means fail to patronize that to be given by the Young Men's Sodality Lyceum to River View tomorrow. Virginia Elections.

A few over 1,500 votes were cast yesterday in Richmond out of about 7,000 who are qualified to vote, a fact that in itself serves to show that general apathy held indubitable away at the election. The democratic nominees for the City Council were all elected however.

A corporation election for three councilmen was held at Falls Church, yesterday. The following were elected to serve three years: George W. Hawxhurst, present mayor of the town; C. C. Walters and H. In the election for members of City Council at Fredericksburg yesterday, the following were successful candidates: J. P. Rowe, W. E Bradley, H. B. Lane, W. S. Embrey, J. W. Masters and Henry Warden. The new council will consist of seven conservatives and five Good Government Leaguers.

A full municipal ticket was voted at Culpeper yesterday. For mayor, the present incumbent, Alden Bell, had no opposition. Treasurer George W. Keerl was also re-elected without opposition. The office of recorder was hotly contested, the present incumbent, Fred Hudgins, winning with a majority of 15.

Party lines were thrown aside in the municipal election held in Winchester yesterday, and the fight waged on the question of "wet" and "dry." The "wet" ticket won out in the local option election last March by a narrow margin in nearly a thousand votes. In yesterday's election out of the six members of council elected, four are "dry" candidates, while the two remaining are in favor of regulation of the liquor traffic rather than prohibition.

The smallest vote ever recorded in Lynchburg was cast there yesterday at the election for councilmen and aldermen to fill vacancies. In one ward there were opposing candidates, but in the others there was no opposition to those nominated at the recent democratic primary.

Six aldermen and 12 councilmen, nominated at the recent democratic primary, were all elected in Petersburg yesterday without opposition, a small vote being polled.

Lynchings Averted.

William Lee, a negro, who was arrested at Cape Charles, Monday, on suspicion of having assaulted two women near Kingston, Md., Sunday night, was taken to Norfolk last night from Eastville jail, under the protection of a strong detachment of the Seventy-first Virginia Regiment. He will be kept at Norfolk until he is extradited to Maryland. The crime for which Lee is held was committed on Mrs. Robert Barnes and Miss Frances Powell, her cousin, as they were returning from church, the particulars of which were published in yesterday's Gazette. Great excitement followed the arrest of the assailant, and had the Virginia authorities failed to take proper precautions a lynching would donbtless have followed.

Ned Watson, colored, was last night, while in the hands of the authorities, of Pocomoke City, Md., beaten and shot almost to death by a mob. During the afternoon he had murderously assaulted his employer, Samuel S. Barnes, near Kings Creek, Somerset county, with a singletree, fracturing his skull. The assault is said to have followed a dispute about wages. The negro made his escape, but was captured last night, and a mob, in an especially ugly mood because of a recent criminal assault by a negro upon two white women, tried to take him from the officers and lynch him, but only succeeded in shooting and beating him nearly to death before he could be hustled to the safety of the jail.

The mob intent on lynching Simmons has increased to 2,000 about the jail. Major Salimonsky, finds he cannot cope with the mob and has appealed to Governor Swanson for more troops.

Ancient Salads.

The lettuce was deemed by the ancients the food of the dead because when Adonis, the beloved of Venus, was mortally wounded by a wild boar the weeping goddess laid him upon a bed of soft and tender lettuce, whose milky juice possesses soothing and narcotic qualities. Lettuce was eaten by the ancients at the close of their repasts, as from its cooling qualities it was considered an antidote to the heating effects of wine. The bitter herbs which the Jews ate at the passover were wild lettuce, succory, tansy, camomile and dandelion, and this same race are the inventors of the salad compounded of oil, vinegar, sugar, salt and mustard to render the bitter herbs palatable. The Irish two centuries ago made their salads of sorrel, wood sorrel and beet chopped with vinegar, beer and a little sugar, but no oil, salt or mustard. Readers of classic history will remember how a lettuce caused the cruel death of Cambyses, king of Persia and Media, and of his consort, who was also his sister.

Municipal Thrift.

On the way from one town on Cape Cod to another a contributor to the Boston Transcript came upon a charming house by the roadside which immediately claimed his attention. It bore a fresh coat of white paint, which was well set off by green blinds. There was a smooth piece of lawn in front, a group of fine shade trees and hammocks, piazza chairs, brilliant sofa pillows and all the adjuncts of summer comfort in luxurious profusion.

"Whose place is this?" he demanded of the boy of twelve who accompanied him as guide and adviser in general.

"That there?" said the boy. "Oh, that there's the poorhouse."

"The poorhouse!" the man exclaimed. "You seem to have luxurious paupers in this town."

"Well, you see," was the explanation, "we hain't got but one, 'n' she's an old woman, 'n' the overseers they board her out with one o' the neighbors 'n' let the poorhouse to some o' them Boston folks for the summer, 'n' that pays her keep."

How to Boil Water.

To boil water would seem to be a very simple thing, and yet the late Charles Delmonico used to say that very few people knew how to do it. "The secret is," he said, "in putting good fresh water into a clean kettle already quite warm and setting the water to boiling quickly and then taking it right off for use in tea, coffee or other drinks before it is spoiled. To let it steam and simmer and evaporate until the good water is in the atmosphere and the lime and iron and dregs only left in the kettle is what makes a great many people sick, and it is worse than no water at all." For water boiled like this and flavored with a few drops of lemon juice Mr. Delmonico used to charge as much as for his best liquors, and he often recommended it to his customers and friends who complained of loss of appetite. It is worth trying. —Good Living.

The Alternative.

The doctor had been called to see a pitman's wife. On coming down from her room the doctor said to the husband: "Well, Geordy, I'm glad to say there isn't very much wrong with your wife. It's a case of too much blood, and we'll try an old fashioned remedy. Just get a leech at the chemist's and put it on her, and I believe you'll find her better when I call in the morning." Next day the doctor called again and, meeting the husband, who was a bit of a sportsman, like many of his kind, said: "And how's your wife this morning, Geordy? Better, I expect." "Naf, man, but she's worse," replied Geordy. "Worse!" exclaimed the doctor. "But did you do as I told you last night?" "Well, not exactly, for I couldna get a leech, so I put the ferret i' bed wi' 'er." —London Tatler.

Valuable Desolate Islands.

The most valuable desolate islands in the world are the Liakovs, in the Arctic ocean, off the mouth of the Lena, in Siberia. They are frost bound and utterly barren save for arctic moss, but they contain such enormous quantities of fossil ivory that they are exceedingly valuable—in fact, although uninhabited save for the ivory diggers and of themselves incapable of supporting life, they produce a revenue of £1,000,000 a year.—London Queen.

A Bengalese Peculiarity.

A doctor remarks: "What strikes one most at a Bengal hospital is the lack of sense of proportion in the estimation of diseases. A man is gravely perturbed because he has not sneezed for three months, but he is comparatively indifferent to the fact that he exhibits the early signs of leprosy.

Rustic Folly.

"You'd never think Kjones was from the country, would you? His manner is perfect and his dress fashionable."

"Yes, but he gave himself dead away on the street car today."

"How?"

"Got up and gave his seat to a woman."—Cleveland Leader.

Little Tasks of Life.

It is while you are patiently toiling at the little tasks of life that the meaning and shape of the great whole of life dawns upon you. It is while you are resisting little temptations that you are growing stronger.—Phillips Brooks.

You cannot induce a lower animal to eat heartily when not feeling well. A sick dog starves himself, and gets well. The stomach, once overworked, must have rest the same as your feet or eyes. You don't have to starve to rest your stomach. KODOL FOR DYSPEPSIA takes up the work for your stomach, digests what you eat and gives it a rest. Puts it back in condition again You can't feel good with disordered stomach. Try Kodol. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co, 401 King street.

Long Tennessee Fight.

For twenty years W. L. Rawls, of Bells, Tenn., fought nasal catarrh. TO THE OWNERS OF DOGS!

MAYOR'S OFFICE,
Alexandria, Va., June 8, 1906.

All persons owning or intending to keep any animal of the Dog or Canine species should come forward on or before and take out a license for the same from the Auditor. After the 30th of June all persons owning or harboring Dogs without the required license are subject to a fine as the laws on the subject require of $3 or $5.

Complaint has been frequently made that many persons fail to take out their license, and that others pay on one or two Dogs when owning and harboring more, or who send such Dogs away during the summer months and bring them back in the fall.

Attention has been called to this evasion of the law, and policemen will report all such cases, and fines can be imposed upon those who fail to take out licenses after trial in the Police Court.

The police officers will be required to report all violations of this law.

☞In order to avoid any mistakes persons who make application for licenses would do well to write their names and number of residence, street, etc., on a card or paper when making application for their licenses to the Auditor.

FRED. J. PAFF, Mayor.

If Tennis Balls Were Eggs How Careful We Would Be!

Hundreds of families go along every day exercising little or no care in the selection of their household supplies when they ought to be CAREFUL about the quality of goods; CAREFUL to see that the goods are perfect; CAREFUL that the price is not too high; CAREFUL that everything is as represented; CAREFUL that prices are not overstated.

There is one way of getting rid of this care and that is by dumping it all on us. We exercise such care in buying goods ourselves that even

His Revolution.

"Speaking of revolutions," began the loquacious man, "I was the central figure in one myself once."

"Somewhere in South America?"

"No; in Massachusetts. I got caught in the shafting of a woolen mill."—Philadelphia Ledger.

He Marked.

"This," said the enthusiastic young reporter, "is going to be one of the best stories the paper has had for a month. Now, mark my words."

Whereupon the editor seized his large club shaped blue pencil and so did.

Grit.

Grit is the grain of character. It may be described as heroism materialized—spirit and will thrust into heart, brain and backbone, so as to form part of the physical substance of the man. —Whipple.

A Ruler.

Singleton—That's a queer sign, "Wanted—A girl to feed ruling machine." Wederly—Nothing queer about that. Somebody wants a nurse girl to look after the baby.

Some people will never learn anything, for this reason, because they understand everything too soon.—Pope.

His Preparation.

Her Attraction.

Jim—How did you fall in love with her? Is she pretty or is she rich? Jack—Both; she's pretty rich.—Pittsburg Gazette.

A very wise man once said that when he began to feel too important he got a map of the universe and tried to find himself on it.
